DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

Applicants' "Amendment under 37 CFR §1.111" filed on May 7, 2009 has been considered.

Claim 1 is amended. Claim 1 remains pending.

Information Disclosure Statement

The information disclosure statement (IDS) submitted on May 7, 2009 is being considered by the examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent No. 7,058,587 to Horne in view of U.S. Patent No. 5,963,919 to Brinkley et al.

Horne discloses a system for computing an order quantity of parts, comprising: required part quantity computing means for computing a required quantity of the parts based on the production schedule (actual requirement; table 11. col. 6, lines 48-49); actual inventory quantity checking means for checking an actual quantity of inventory of the parts (on hand parts inventories; table 3, col. 8., lines 21-25); first part order quantity computing means for computing a first part order quantity for a predetermined first period of time based on the computed required quantity of the parts and the checked actual quantity of inventory of the parts (customer orders, table 3, col. 7, lines 64-67; col. 18, lines 14-25; col. 15, line 24-col. 16, line 59; col. 25, lines 16-51); tentative inventory quantity computing means for computing a tentative quantity of inventory of the parts based on a past order record of the parts and a production record of the product (col. 5, lines 25-35; col. 21, lines 60-64); second part order quantity computing means for computing a second part order quantity for a predetermined second period of time, longer than the predetermined first period of time, based on the computed required quantity of the parts and the computed tentative quantity of inventory of the parts (customer orders, table 3, col. 7, lines 64-67; col. 18, lines 14-25; col. 15, line 24-col. 16, line 59; col. 25, lines 16-51); and part ordering means for ordering parts (customer orders, table 3, col. 7, lines 64-67); standard price inputting means for inputting a standard price to be compared with the inputted price of the parts (col. 25, line 26); standard price storing means for storing the inputted standard price (col. 25, line 26); and selecting means for comparing the inputted price with the stored standard price and for selecting the first part order quantity computing means when the inputted price is greater than the stored standard price, while for selecting the second part order quantity computing means when the inputted price is equal or to less than the store standard price (col. 31, lines 17-35; col. 39, lines 36-47; col. 40, lines 46-51; col. 41, lines 57-col. 42, line 14).

However, Horne does not explicitly a price data inputting means for inputting a price data of the parts; and part pricing data storing means for storing the inputted price of parts.

Brinkley discloses a price data inputting means for inputting a price data of the parts (order cost...user-specified input parameters, col. 9, lines 1-9); part pricing data storing means for storing the inputted price of parts (col. 3, lines 36-52; col. 7, lines 62-col. 8, line 5)

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention was made to modify the system of Horne, to include a price data inputting means for inputting a price data of the parts; and part pricing data storing means for storing the inputted price of parts, as taught by Brinkley, in order to provide user-specified input parameters (Brinkley, col. 9, lines 8-9), thus providing an efficient and flexible way of managing the system (Brinkley, col. 3, lines 55-56).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 1 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
